

Tabitha Vevers

Tabitha Vevers received her B.A. from Yale University and studied at Skowhegan School of Painting & Sculpture. She is the recipient of numerous awards and honors including grants from the Pollock-Krasner Foundation, the George & Helen Segal Foundation, and the Massachusetts Artists Foundation, and painting fellowships to the Ballinglen Arts Foundation (Ireland), Oberpfälzer Künstlerhaus (Germany), Fine Arts Work Center, Virginia Center for the Creative Arts and The MacDowell Colony. Vevers was a co-founder of artSTRAND, Inc. and has served as a member of the exhibition committee of the Provincetown Art Association & Museum, the admissions panel of the Virginia Center for the Creative Arts, and the Artists' Advisory Board of Castle Hill Center for the Arts. She has exhibited nationally and internationally and has work in numerous public and private collections. She was honored with a mid-career retrospective entitled NARRATIVE BODIES at the deCordova Sculpture Park + Museum in 2009 and her work was recently included in a major exhibition entitled GOLD, at the Belvedere Museum, Vienna, Austria. Born in New York to artists Elspeth Halvorsen and Tony Vevers, she currently lives and works in Cambridge and Wellfleet, MA and is married to the artist Daniel Ranalli.